

Eclipse Testing Day 2012

Welcome to the third Eclipse Testing Day!

- Eclipse (<http://www.eclipse.org/org/>)
 - Community for individuals and organizations to collaborate on open source software
 - Consists of various projects
 - Foundation is a not-for-profit organization supported by members, which hosts the projects and cultivates an open source community and ecosystem
- Eclipse Days (http://wiki.eclipse.org/Eclipse_Day)
 - Face-to-face networking events, supported by the Foundation

Thank you to our sponsors and partners!

Díaz Hilterscheid

Agenda - Morning

- 9.00 – 9.45 Testing of Eclipse RCP based products
- 9.45 – 10.30 Cutting the right corners: Achieving the balance between effort and payoff for GUI test automation

- 10.30 – 11.00 COFFEE BREAK

- 11.00 – 11.45 Java Development with Contracts in Eclipse
- 11.45 – 12.30 Iterative Model Based Generation of Test Cases for Graphical User Interfaces

- 12.30 – 13.30 LUNCH BREAK

Agenda - Afternoon

- 13.30 – 14.15 eDeltaMBT - Delta oriented Model-based Software Product Line Testing
- 14.15 – 14.40 Testing for Tool Qualification in Eclipse
- 14.40 – 15.00 Mind-meld across teams, tools and time zones with Eclipse Mylyn
- 15.00 – 15.30 COFFEE BREAK
- 15.30 – 17.00 Panel Discussion
- 17.00 Evening reception

Panel discussion

- Three experts, one moderator, your questions

- Panel members
 - Michaela Greiler, TU Delft
 - Dr. Frank Simon, SQS AG
 - Jana Knopp, Xing AG

- Moderator
 - Dr. Klaudia Dussa-Zieger, Method Park AG

- Questions
 - We have some prepared, but feel free to ask your own!

Other information

- The evening reception will begin straight after the panel discussion in the bistro area
- Lunch will take place in the room behind the bistro, not in the cafeteria!
- Please fill out your feedback forms!
- Please return badges at the end of the day

Final words

- Thank you to the program committee
 - Ralph Müller, Eclipse Foundation
 - Prof. Ina Schäfer, TU Braunschweig
 - Matthias Kempka, Eclipse Source
 - Hans-Joachim Brede, BREDEX GmbH
- And finally, thank you to all attendees and speakers!